does not exist so much among the undergraduates as in the graduate circles. Harvard men feel that all athelic activities should be under the direct supervision of graduate coaches. Haughten, the football coach, is a Harvard man, and there was never any objection made against him.

James Wray, the crew coach, and Pocch Donovan, the track man, have always been regarded as outsiders, because neither of them are Harvard men. Notwithstanding the victories of the cup. Then Anderson 2 to 3, ending the match.

men. Notwithstanding the victories of both, the graduates would much rather see Harvard men in charge. They declare that victory is not the most essential thing in the world.

Wray has had trouble before with crew captains, who did not like to take orders from him. The graduates showed their view of the situation the other evening when they gave a banquet to one of the fastest games of the the victorious varsity crew on their return from Ithaca, and did not invite Wray. BRIEF PARAGRAPHS.

Five events have been arranged closed to the Allied Building Trades. There are a 100 yard dash, 300 yard dash, 12 pound shotput, 75 yard race for fat men and an inter-organization tug-bf-war. Solid gold watches, for first; gold-filled watches, for second and gold sleeve links for third, are the

"J. Franklin Baker is the bigges ingrate in baseball," says Clark Crif-fith, manager of the Senators. "Connic Mack treated Baker handsomely, and the player reciprocated by biting the hand that fed him. Baker's conduct describes the extreme penalty and the best way to penaltze a ball player is to cut him off the payroll."

Heavy entry lists have been reported in all the trotting and pacing events at the October meeting of the Ken-tucky trotting horsebreeders' association at Lexington, Ky. The total value of the stakes was placed at $90,000. Among the stake events for which entries closed were the following: Castleton cup (free-for-all), Walnut Hall cup for 2.12 class trotters. Ashland for 2.19 class trotters, Kentucky and Lexington for threeyear-old trotters, Cumberland for 2.05 pacers, Blue Grass for 2.10 pacers. toring or walking—or even jitneying— a great many miles to see. The scrap between the professional men and the business men of the city at the outing on next Saturday afternoon on the Academy grounds for the benefit of the Norwich Playgrounds association. For according to Fordy Plaut, a member in good and regular standing of the baseball committee, there will actual-iy be a few real bona fide ball players on both teams. The man who in 1913-14 had the most to do with the big county fair baby show said last night, when the newspaper men asked him about it, that he was in a position to say there'd be at least one Ty Cobb, with the possibility of a Lajole and a Hans Wagner thrown in for good measure, on the wam of nine good men and active that the doctors, lawyers o and bankers of the city would pit against the commercial team Saturday 3 0 4 2 0 3 1 0 1 0 east of the Connecticut river. Tom Shields, whom they hope to get, is an-other lawyer old-timer on the dia-mond. "Doc" Driscoll has lately bought an automobile and is out of practice at the moment, but he was a good man five or six years ago, Dr. Cassidy says, and so, by the way, was
Dr. Gildersleeve, who captained the fast team of the Gentlemen's Athletic best tennis players that ever came over from Middlesex county and also a former shortstop on the Worcester academy team. Judge-to-be John Holyoke Barnes said last night to a dele-gation that waited on him: "I'll go on as a substitute if they need me, but I'd as a substitute if they need me, but I'd rather write two miles of poetry about the game after it is over than play three innings with the fast crowd already signed up." Dr. Smith and Dr. Agnew will be asked to have their cars at the grounds to carry wounded players home. Dr. Smith will treat every Bull Moose free of charge that gets damaged, on the field or among the spectators. The business men will get together today or as soon as possible to pick their teams, and they believe they can dig up enough heavy hitters they can dig up enough heavy hitters to drive the lawyer-doctor team to the tall timbers. Among other things, there will be a band on the grounds to play before the game and after the game. The association looks for a big

A number of college pitchers will report in the next few weeks to the Athletics and Connie Mack will do everything in his power to steady his tottering pitching staff. "I'm going to build up," says Connie, "and there will be a lot of young players tried. Of course, I am concentrating my attention on the pitching staff. I haven't the problems elsewhere. I'm trying to brace the team this year. I am not going to hand any wait-until-next-season alibit to the fans."
